To create a good Appetite, and strengthen the Stomach, by Dr. Lower.

Take of the stomatic pill with gums, extractum rudii, of each a drachm, resin of jalap, half a scruple ; tartar vitriolated one scruple ; oil of aniseeds, four drops ; mix with syrup of violets, and make into pills ; of which take four or five nights ; they are of excellent use in the megrims, and vertigo, by reason they carry the humours off from the stomach, which fumes up into the head.
